Congo: Leopoldville officials claim that an invitation to Vice-Premier Antoine Gizenga to return to Leopoldville, issued in conjunction with the notification of the parliament's motion of censure against him, is mere "window dressing." They are confident Gizenga lacks any important support, that he "does not dare to return," and that the situation will soon be ripe for his expulsion from the government and even arrest. UN representative Linner, in urging action against Gizenga, appears to have gone so far as to promise Premier Adoula cooperation in arranging Gizenga's arrest.

Tshombe meanwhile is seeking the early appointment of a "respected international jurist" to advise the Katanga assembly and grand council regarding amendments to the Belgian-drafted Congo constitution and has asked support for this move by the British, French, and US governments. *Yesterday Tshombe announced that the Katanga assembly would meet today to discuss the Kitona agreement.
